Subject: 2005 Chevrolet Cobalt & Pontiac Pursuit (Canada)
 Number: PD05-06

General Motors has introduced a new "A" body vehicle for the 2005 model year, the Cobalt. This new car is the replacement for the Cavalier and has an expected production of 250,000 for 2005. In addition, the Cobalt has a brother in Canada that goes by the name, Pontiac Pursuit. The vehicles are new but many of the brake system components are existing part numbers for other applications.

CARQUEST has the correct, application specific, ceramic friction products available to service these vehicles today. See the application chart below for details.
